

Clarkston Area Youth Assistance -- Volunteer Opportunities

Mission: To strengthen youth and families, and to prevent and reduce incidents of juvenile delinquency, neglect, and abuse through community involvement.

Clarkston Area Youth Assistance (CAYA) is a volunteer-driven organization, assisted by professional staff, whose purpose is to provide positive growth experiences for families and brighten a youth's future.

YES! I am interested in volunteering with CAYA.

Please contact me with more information about:

- Board of Directors – oversee CAYA programs
- Camp – provide camp opportunities & scholarships
- Family Education – youth/parent educational workshops
- Recreation – provide recreational activities for families and youth
- Fundraising – events to financially support CAYA
- Homework Club – after school tutoring support
- Membership – recruit volunteers for CAYA
- Mentors Plus – volunteer mentors for local youth
- Public Relations – promote CAYA in the community
- Youth Recognition – event recognizing local youth
- Pinwheels – pinwheel gardens for abuse prevention/awareness
- Finance – aid in budget development & advise in financial matters
- Research/Development – analyze community needs & develop program ideas
- Youth Involvement – create programs for youth by youth

Name:

Address:

City:

State:

Zip:

Phone:

Email: